

I am concerned that if LPFM takes priority over current FM translators, some valuable stations could be forced off the air. My family listens to K-LOVE and we benefit tremendously from the availability of K-LOVE from so many different areas. K-LOVE serves listeners all over the country.